

Presidential Address

President Obama addressed our nation's school children on the importance of education on September 8, 2009. His address was made at noon, which made it very difficult for us to show live. This time frame was during at least part of our lunch time for over two thirds of our students. This being the case and the fact that this was the first day of school we were unable to view the speech here at Tallwood. We will be showing a recording of his address on a school wide broadcast on September 10 at approximately 2:40. If for some reason you would like to opt-out your child from this activity, please notify your child's classroom teacher before the date and time of the activity.

The U.S. Department of Education has information on this speech .You may access this information on its website <http://www.ed.gov/admins/lead/academic/bts.html>

Thanks for your continued support!
